

Now Hiring Modern Farmers

Bowery is the modern farming company reimagining what a flavorful future tastes like.

Modern Farmers at Bowery play a central role in bringing our vision for democratized access to fresh produce to life. Farmers manage a fast-paced production line, processing and packing the highest quality leafy greens, herbs and produce in a food-safe, temperature controlled environment.

What grows here changes everything.

About The Modern Farmer role:

When you join the Bowery Farming team as a Modern Farmer, you'll be part of a team that processes and packs fresh leafy greens. You will collaborate closely with your teammates, team leads and shift supervisors to meet daily production goals, while maintaining a safe and clean production environment.

As a fast growing company, the role will open up a variety of opportunities for movement and development, all while giving you exposure to an emerging, future-focused industry. If you're up for the challenge of learning and working alongside a passionate and solutions-minded team, apply now to see what Bowery Farming is all about!
