

Zora Martin Felton

SYMPOSIUM

ZORA MARTIN FELTON SYMPOSIUM: Empowering Women of Color

Moravian University invites high-school-age girls to join us for a full day devoted to personal growth and uplifting moments.

Workshops will focus on:

- Elevating your confidence and self-esteem
- Promoting health and well-being
- Increasing awareness of educational opportunities and social issues
- Promoting financial literacy
- Creating supportive networks

WHEN:

Friday, April 12, 2024
7:30 a.m.–5:00 p.m.

Breakfast, lunch, and snacks are provided!

LOCATION:

Moravian University
Bethlehem, PA

The Zora Martin Felton Symposium helps promote the intellectual and educational development of women of color. High-school-age girls are invited to apply to the symposium to attend workshops and engage in meaningful conversations around important issues. Our goal is to promote positive well-being and identify strategies for personal and professional success—creating a network of empowered leaders.

Apply by March 15:

Zora Martin Felton was the first Black graduate of Moravian College for Women in 1952. Martin Felton earned her master's degree in education from Howard University in 1980.

moravian.edu/zora

MORAVIAN UNIVERSITY

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion